

Festival of Aboriginal Artists

March 2010

Performances at branches of Surrey Public Library & Fraser Valley Regional Library

Curtis Clearsky

Saturday, March 13, 10:30 – 11:30 am

Mission Community Library | 33247 Second Ave | 604-826-6610

Come to the library for a live performance by aboriginal artist Curtis Clearsky. His performance will include acapella, contemporary spoken word, hip hop and the sharing of traditional stories.

www.spl.surrey.bc.ca

www.fvrl.ca

Funding provided by the Metro Vancouver Urban Aboriginal Strategy

FREE Celebrate!

Musical performances,
dances, storytelling, crafts, art workshops by Aboriginal artists as a way of sharing culture & building memory

SCHEDULE:

Saturday, March 13:

Gracie Kelly, Stó:lō – cedar craft

Fort Langley Library: 10:30 am – 12 pm

Newton Library: 2 – 3:30 pm

Amy Eustergerling

Cree storyteller for all ages

Cloverdale Library: 10 – 11:30 am

Maple Ridge Library: 2 – 3:30 pm

Curtis Clearsky,

Blackfoot/Anishinabe hip hop artist

Mission Library: 10:30 – 11:30 am

Clearbrook Library: 2 – 3:30 pm funded by Fraser Valley Regional Library

Saturday, March 20:

Quentin Harris, Neskonolith

First Nations drawing workshop

White Rock Library: 10:30 – 12 pm

Semiahmoo Library: 2 – 3:30 pm

Michael Visser,

Cree Powwow dancer

Cloverdale Library: 10 – 11:30 am

City of Langley Library: 2 – 3:30 pm

Wednesday, March 24:

Lore Gibson,

Cree Storyteller for children

Strawberry Hill Library: 10 – 11:30 am

Ladner Library: 1:30 – 2:30 pm

Saturday, March 27:

Curtis Clearsky,

Blackfoot/Anishinabe hip hop artist

Strawberry Hill Library: 10 – 11:30 am

George Mackie Library: 2 – 3:30 pm

Lisa Shepherd, Métis dance: jigging

Port Coquitlam Library: 10:15 – 11:30 am

Fleetwood Library: 2 – 3:30 pm