READING IS DELICIOUS BOOKMARK CONTEST
Kids and teens are invited to design a bookmark for FVRL.

Abbotsford, BC – Preschool kids to teens in grade 12 can show off their creativity and artistic flair by entering an original bookmark design in the Fraser Valley Regional Library's Reading is Delicious bookmark contest! This year's theme encourages kids and teens to savour each word and discover just how tasty a good book can be.

The contest has been divided into five age categories. Entrant's designs will be judged for the chance to win prizes from the local library. The top bookmarks from each library will be entered into the grand prize final where they will be judged on creativity and artistic merit. A grand prize winner from each of the five age categories will have his or her bookmark printed and distributed to all 24 FVRL locations.

Contest rules, prize information and entry-forms with space to create a unique bookmark are available at any FVRL location or online at www.fvrl.ca. Completed forms and finished designs must be submitted to FVRL by October 1.

About Fraser Valley Regional Library

Fraser Valley Regional Library is the largest public library system in British Columbia, with 24 community libraries serving over 680,000 people in its service area. Established in 1930, it is funded with taxes raised in the community it serves, plus a Government of BC operating grant. The governing Board consists of elected officials representing 15 member municipalities and regional districts. With its mission "to connect people to the world of information and ideas," FVRL plays a prominent role in the communities throughout the Fraser Valley.
